

AIA Pittsburgh Foundation for Architecture

Leadership Institute for Emerging Professionals Damianos Scholarship Application

The Damianos Scholarship has been generously donated by Sylvester Damianos, FAIA. Syl has had a dual career in art and architecture for a half century. An honors graduate of Carnegie Institute of Technology (now Carnegie Mellon University) and a Fulbright Scholar at the Technological Institute of Delft, The Netherlands, he also served in the Army Corps of Engineers. His architectural practice spanned over 60 years and included national roles as President of The American Institute of Architects, Chancellor of the AIA College of Fellows, and Chair of the American Architectural Foundation. Syl has also received the Distinguished Achievement Award from Carnegie Mellon University.

Application

ELIGIBILITY

This is a needs-based scholarship.

Interested applicants must be an AIA member, licensed for 10 years or less, Associate AIA Member, or AIA Pittsburgh Industry Partner.

The application process is free.

Recipient of this scholarship will receive full tuition payment for the Leadership Institute.

Class size is limited. Application process is competitive.

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR RESPONSE IN A SEPARATE DOCUMENT
(YOUR RESPONSE SHOULD BE 500 WORDS OR LESS.)

What are your reasons for applying for the Damianos Scholarship?

Please send this Scholarship Application along with your Program Application to: foundation@aiapgh.org by Thursday July 19, 2018